ABOUT US

NORE is an indie pop-rock band based in the Netherlands. Now go and add a pinch of jazz and some kick-ass artwork.

Unconventional yet cuddly, the group of five surprises their audience with songs about downwards spirals, zodiac signs and why Cupid should never be trusted.

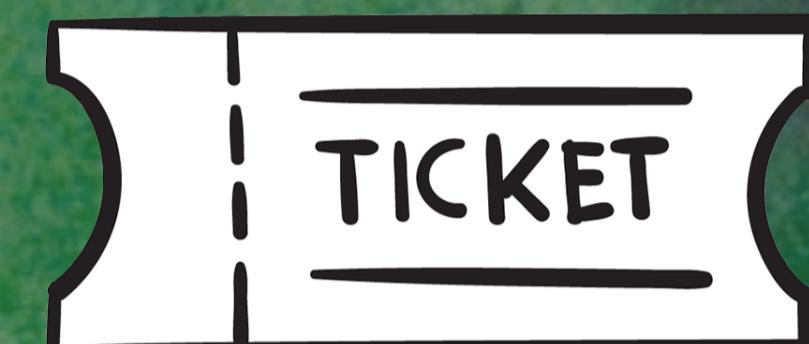

On stage, you'll get to know the energetic twentysomethings not only through their music but also through the fun they have while performing.

The artwork is made by lead singer and songwriter Tes, who founded the band. The other bandmembers joined quickly, and since the start of 2020 they've been working their asses off to jump on stage whenever the world's ready.
